Miss Bess Hays, formerly of Monroe City, Mo., now of Scotland, Texas, was married to Mr. Ralph Fabian Donaho, Tuesday morning, July 12, in St. Mary's Catholic church at Windthorst, Texas, with Rev. Fr. Frowin Koerdts, O. S. B., officiating.

After the ceremony they drove to the home of the bride's brother, Jefferson Hays, where an elegant feast awaited them.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hays, while the groom is a prosperous young business man, now employed with the Steger Lumber Co. in that city.

ITEMS FROM FARMERS

Of Farmers, For Farmers and Pertaining to Farmers.

When you figure on a sale and want Col. W. T. Youell to cry it, call Elbert Yates at the F & M Bank. He can give you the Colonels dates.

J. H. McClintic has shipped in a car load of yearling cattle, feeders and sold them to H. A. McClintic.

There may be larger barns than the one Charlie Sharp has had built but none nicer. It is a hip roof barn, drop siding, concrete floors and painted drab color and trimmed in white. What a relief from the old red barn or the "little red school house on the hill."

Lee Ely has sold his 13 head of good hogs.

Dan K. Yowell, Saturday sold 5,000 bushels of his oat crop to Thomas Dawson for August delivery at 33c.

Joseph A. Frye has bought 7 head of 2 year old steers from John Little.

Talk about alfalfa the red clover of Missouri is as good or a better feed and unless a man wants to spend the entire summer harvesting a crop, is a better and more profitable one when one saves the seed. Charlie and Frank Ryan cut and hauled forty-nine big loads of clover from an eleven acre patch and the seed is yet to hear from.

Bob Rouse has sold his pair of weaning mules to John Moss for $200.

John L. Owen sent 10 beeves to beeves to Hannibal, Monday and has bought 4 from Arthur Bynum O. M. Hardesty 1, John Foster 1, T. J. Yates 1, Phil Arnoldy 3, L. Little 1, Will Greeves 3, C. Cox 1, H. A. Ford 5.

Remember Mr. and Mrs. Farmer that the pure food law now demands fresh eggs and remember eggs have to be candled and remember that where there is a loss on account of eggs being stale it is your loss and remember that fresh eggs bring the best price.

Gone, But Not Forgotten.

City Marshall J. W. Stephens has had the time of his life rounding up the toughest bunch of bums that ever hung out at the Monroe City Fair grounds.

There was seven of them, and three of them were "crips" and all the tougher for being crippled.

When told to light out, strike the trail, to vanish, they got real saucy and put up a stiff bluff, but by the time John hammered about four of them into submission the others yielded to the inevitable and the bunch was loaded on a transfer wagon and brought to and locked up in the City jail.

Saturday they were let out in ones and twos at a time and told to hit the grit and they hit.

For years the Democrat has advocated the Whipping Post and if that bunch could have been legally whipped they would not only never have returned but would have told other toughs to give this city a clear passage.

We will give you your choice of our $3 and $2.50 Straw Hats at $1.45. Yates & Hagan.

GALAXY OF ORATORS

At the Monroe City Picnic Thursday Farmers Very Busy Big Crowd Present

Monroe City advertised as speakers for the picnic last Thursday Hons. David R. Francis, Sterling P. Bond and James A. Reed, candidates for the U. S. Senate; Congressmen Champ Clark, J. T. Lloyd and W. W. Rucker, all candidates for reelection and who will be elected and Ed. F. Haley a republican candidate for congress from this district. In addition to these the several candidates of the three counties were mixing with the large crowd present.

Clark, Francis, Reed and Rucker, held up the tariff question so that the people could see the iniquity of the Payne-Aldrich law.

Bond made a speech which was very interesting to some.

Haley said the present tariff law is the best the country ever had.

While the crowd was not so large as it would have been had the farmers not been in the midst of harvest, corn plowing, etc. Yet all present greatly enjoyed the day.

Monroe City advertises big things and delivers the goods. If you failed to attend the big picnic you missed a big thing.

New Things.

The new plate glass front at Bert Bull's place of business is in and is a great improvement to the building. The interior will be papered and painted.

McFarland Bros. are building a large granary with concrete floor at the mill.

George Yates is building a nice new barn.

Mrs. Fannie Fields has re-roofed her home and built some outbuildings.

Fred and Duck Whitmar are building a nice 3 room house.

A Long Time.

Days slip by and become quarter, half and whole centuries.

Mrs. Mary Kent Collar today at the home of her son, Charles in this city, is celebrating her 102 birthday. She is as bright, hearty and chatty as a girl and looks to be 60 instead of the great age of 102 years.

By birth she is a Pennsylvanian. Kent County, Michigan, was named after her uncle Solomon Kent of Cora Rem, Michigan. Her brothers, James and Solomon Kent are 86 and 88 years old. Her sister, Mrs. Rose Munsey, of Beaver Dam, Pa., is 92 years old; her baby boy is 48.

As a girl in Iowa, she met Chief Keokuk and can tell one all about the Black Hawk war.

Her sons, John and William, live in Marion County, and her daughter, Mrs. Rose Welty, in Mt. Sterling, Ill. Life with her is a pleasant dream of the past.
